

QUARTERLY SALES REPORT

Reporting Period: Q2 2025 (April - June)

Region: Middle East

Report Generated: 2026-05-11

Executive Summary

This report summarizes the sales performance for Middle East during Q2 2025 (April - June). Total revenue reached $298,100.00, representing strong year-over-year growth. Performance is broken down by product line below. Key drivers include increased enterprise contract sizes and improved retention rates. Overall, the quarter exceeded internal targets and provides a strong foundation for the next reporting period.

Revenue Breakdown by Product Line

Product Line	Units Sold	Revenue	% of Total
Enterprise Software	28	$142,000.00	47.6%
Cloud Services	215	$98,900.00	33.2%
Professional Services	18	$57,200.00	19.2%
TOTAL		$298,100.00	100.0%

Key Observations

The sales team achieved record performance this quarter. Customer acquisition increased by 22 percent compared to the prior period. Recommendations for next quarter include expanding the enterprise account team and increasing marketing spend on digital channels. Forecast for the next quarter projects continued growth with revenue targets set at 15 percent above this period.